(B) Default Trial or Hearing. When a motion for a default judgment is filed, unless the Court orders otherwise, the Court will set and hold a hearing with notice to ~~the parties. any opposing party that previously appeared.~~ the parties.

Rule 7055-2

Failure to Prosecute

If no action has been taken in any adversary case by a party for three (3) consecutive months, or if a case is not at issue by that time, the Court will dismiss the case for lack of prosecution on 30-days' notice to counsel of record and to any unrepresented party if that party's address is known.

Rule 7067-1

Registry Fund

USDCLR 67.1 governing Deposits and Withdrawals in the Registry of the Court applies to all deposits of funds into the registry account of the bankruptcy court.

Rule 8006-1

Transcripts - Appeal

A party to an appeal who has designated a transcript as part of the record on appeal must file a certified copy of the transcript with the bankruptcy court and with the appropriate appellate court. The party shall attach to the copy of the transcript, an affidavit by the transcriber attesting, under oath, that the transcript is a true and correct copy of the hearing record.

Rule 8011-1

Motions - Appeal

Any motion brought for failure to designate the record or failure to prosecute an appeal must be filed in the appropriate appellate court.

Rule 9004-1

Pleadings - Requirements of Form

(A) Form. Pleadings, motions, briefs, and other papers must be submitted on letter-size paper, preferably typewritten, and must be printed on one side of the paper only. Typewritten documents must be double spaced with a top margin of one (1") inch.

Names must be typed or legibly printed under the signature line.

(~~A~~B) Telephone Numbers and Addresses. At the top left margin on the first page of a pleading, the pleading must contain the name of the client, and the name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers and appropriate state bar license number of the person signing the pleading. Government attorneys may identify the agency represented in the body of the pleading.

(~~B~~C) Exhibits to Pleadings or Papers. Bulky or voluminous materials should not be submitted for filing with a pleading or paper unless the materials are essential to the Court's determination. A summary is usually sufficient.

Rule 9006-1

Time Periods

Unless otherwise stated, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006 governs the computation of time in all matters under these Local Bankruptcy Rules.

Rule 9010-1

Attorneys - Notice of Appearance

(A) Admission of Attorneys. The bar of this Court consists of those attorneys admitted to practice and in current good standing as members of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming.

(B) Appearance by Corporations, Partnerships, and Other Entities. This rule does not prohibit a corporation from appearing without an attorney to file a claim, vote to elect a trustee, serve on an approved committee, or file an acceptance/rejection of a proposed plan. In all other cases a corporation, partnership, or entity other than an individual may appear and participate only through an attorney authorized to practice in the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming.

(C) Appearance Pro Hac Vice. USDCLR 83.12.2(b) and (c) apply to all attorneys who appear in adversary proceedings or contested matters before this Court, unless otherwise excused from compliance. Counsel not admitted to practice before this Court may file motions without admission pro hac vice, but if any relief sought becomes a contested matter as defined by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 or is an adversary proceeding, USDCLR 83.12.2(b) applies. The United States District Court's General Order Regarding Non-Appropriated Fund Administration applies to all motions to appear pro hac vice filed in adversary proceedings.

(D) Attorney's Appearance. Attorneys who file an entry of appearance will be placed on the creditors' mailing list for the case as a party in interest. An appearance entitles counsel to receive copies of notices, orders and other documents to which parties in interest are entitled under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002.

(E) Withdrawal of Appearance. An attorney who has appeared in a case will be authorized to withdraw only on motion and notice to the attorney's client and for good cause shown. The motion shall state the specific reasons for withdrawal, unless that would violate Wyoming's Rules of Professional Conduct. The notice to the attorney's client must include an admonition that the client is personally responsible for complying with all court orders, the time limitations established by the Court and the applicable rules, and a statement of any pending or impending matters. The attorney shall serve the notice and motion on the attorney's client and file a certificate evidencing service. Absent written consent of the client, the Court will hold a hearing on the motion at which the movant and the client must appear.

Pro Se Parties

An individual proceeding without an attorney is expected to read and be familiar with these Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Evidence, as appropriate in the case. Hard copies of these rules are available for review at the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and are available on line at the bankruptcy court's internet website located at www.wyb.uscourts.gov.

Every pro se party is under a continuing duty to notify the clerk, in writing, of any change of address or telephone number. Any notice mailed to the last address of record of a pro se party will be deemed sufficient notice.

Rule 9011-4

Signatures on Pleadings

(A) Pleadings. Every pleading, motion, or other paper filed by an attorney must bear the signature of at least one attorney of record. The original of every pleading, motion, or other paper filed by a party not represented by an attorney must bear the original signature of that pro se party.

Stamped or facsimile signatures on original paper pleadings filed by pro se parties or conventionally filed by attorneys are not permitted.

(B) Plans. All disclosure statements and plans submitted in a chapter 11 case, and plans submitted in chapter 12 and 13 cases, must be signed by the plan proponent and counsel.

Rule 9013-1

Motion Practice

(A) Motions.

(1) Every request for relief must be submitted as a separate motion and may not be combined with any other pleading or motion, but a Notice of Hearing or Notice of Time to Object may be included with the motion if the Notice is identified in the title of the pleading.

(2) Dispositive motions in adversary proceedings must be accompanied by a separate memorandum as provided by LBR 9013-2. Affidavits and other supporting papers must be filed with the motion and memorandum.

(3) A party who files a motion, other than a dispositive motion in an adversary proceeding, may either file a separate memorandum or may include in the motion a short, concise statement of the arguments and authorities relied on.

(4) Any motion to vacate or continue a hearing will be summarily denied if it does not contain an averment as to the position of the opposing party.

(B) Hearings.

(1) Any party, either proposing or opposing a motion, who does not intend to actively participate or prosecute its respective position, must immediately notify all counsel of record and the bankruptcy Judge's chambers. Unless excused by the Court from attending, the failure of counsel or pro se party to be present at a scheduled hearing will be deemed a waiver of the motion or consent to the relief requested.

(2) In response to a non-dispositive motion filed in an adversary proceeding opposing parties shall file a statement conceding the motion or an objection to a motion within 14 ten court days of the filing of the motion. Motions filed in adversary proceedings may be considered by the Court without hearing or will be resolved on oral argument at the Court's discretion.

(C) Proposed Orders. The movant shall submit a separate proposed order concurrently with the filing of any motion. The proposed order shall not include the heading of counsel submitting the order. See LBR 9072-1(A).

Rule 9013-2

Memoranda of Law

A memorandum of law may be submitted in any contested matter, or with a nondispositive motion in an adversary proceeding, and must be submitted with all dispositive motions in adversary proceedings. Any memorandum submitted must be filed and served at least ~~seven (7) 5 calendar~~ days before the scheduled hearing, except as allowed or required by the Court.

No memorandum may exceed 15 pages in length, exclusive of the table of contents and exhibits, without prior permission from the Court. Photocopies of cases relied on may be attached if desired.

When the movant is required by these or other rules, or by court order, to submit a memorandum, any responsive memorandum must be filed by the opposing party within ~~14 15~~ days after service of the movant's pleadings.

Rule 9013-3

Certificate of Service

Certificates of service must state the name and address of the attorney or party served, the capacity in which the person was served, and the manner and date of service. The certificate must be filed within ~~seven (7) 3 calendar~~ days of service.

Certificates evidencing service on all parties listed on the official court mailing list must have a copy of that list attached per LBR 2002-1(B)(3).

Rule 9015-1

Jury Trial

(A) Jury Trial Demand. A demand made under Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b) must be filed in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5005.

(B) Consent to Bankruptcy Judge Conducted Trial. If the right to a jury trial applies, a timely demand has been filed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), and the district court judge has specially designated the bankruptcy judge to conduct the jury trial, the parties may consent to have a jury trial conducted by a bankruptcy judge under 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) by jointly or separately filing a statement of consent within the time specified in the designation order.

Rule 9019-1

Settlements and Agreed Orders

(A) Hearings. When a matter is set for a hearing and the parties enter into a stipulation or other means of disposition which negates the need for the hearing, the parties must notify the Court at least 48 hours before the scheduled hearing, failing which they must appear.

(B) Pleadings. Any stipulated settlement to a contested matter or any withdrawal of an objection must be filed within ~~14~~ 15 days after the date and time of the vacated hearing.

(C) Agreed Orders. The Court will only approve a stipulation if the parties file a motion for approval and submit a proposed order and any applicable filing fee.

Rule 9019-2

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Upon agreement and motion of all parties, the court may refer an adversary proceeding to alternative dispute resolution under USDCLR 16.3. The motion may be made at any time after commencement of the case. An adversary proceeding referred to alternative dispute resolution will remain under the jurisdiction of the court for all purposes, including the entry of any order granting a motion to approve a stipulation resolving the adversary proceeding, dismissing the adversary proceeding or withdrawing the referral to alternative dispute resolution.

Rule 9070-1

Exhibits

(A) Courtroom Procedure. All exhibits introduced into evidence must be legible. Exhibits may be printed only on one side of the page. Exhibits submitted by the movant, plaintiff, applicant, or proponent, must be labeled with exhibit numbers, and those submitted by the respondent or defendant must be labeled with exhibit letters.

When exhibits are offered, the witness will testify from the original exhibit, which will then be returned to the courtroom deputy. The courtroom deputy will retain all originally marked exhibits. Counsel must provide a copy of each exhibit for the Court and for opposing counsel.

Copies of all exhibits to be introduced at the trial in an adversary proceeding must be submitted with the proposed pretrial order. Exhibits submitted to the Judge's chambers must be separated by pages with tabs or by sheets of differently colored paper.

(B) Post-Trial or Post-Hearing Procedure.

(1) The courtroom deputy has safekeeping responsibility for all exhibits marked for identification and offered at any trial or hearing.

(2) The clerk will scan all exhibits received at hearing or trial into ECF. The clerk will retain custody of the originally received exhibits for three (3) weeks following completion of the hearing or trial or until any appeal is final. Unless notified by a party during that period that the party seeks return of the exhibits, the court will retain an electronic copy and dispose of the originally received exhibits without further notice.

Rule 9072-1

Orders - Proposed

(A) Format. Proposed orders must be separately captioned as a single document and not combined with any other pleading. The signature line for the Judge may not appear on a continuation page having no language from the text. Proposed orders shall not include submitting counsel's name and address at the top left hand margin.

(B) Approval. If an attorney prepares a judgment or order, the form must be approved by all parties to the cause. Unless the Court orders otherwise, approval may be deemed waived if a copy of the judgment or order is personally served on all counsel of record at least seven (7) 5-calendar days, or if served by mail, at least 10 8-calendar days before the judgment or order is submitted to the Court.

Rule 9074-1

Telephone Conferences

(A) Request for Telephone Conference. Any party requesting that a scheduled courtroom hearing be held by telephone must first contact opposing counsel and must advise the Court whether other counsel agrees to a telephone hearing. If the Court determines that the matter may be handled by telephone, the Court will set and notice the hearing.

(B) Arrangements for Conference Call. The Court will initiate a telephone conference call, unless the party requesting the conference call is ordered by the Court to arrange for and place the call.

(C) Availability for Telephone Conference. Counsel must be at the published office telephone numbers 30 minutes before the time set and must take any steps necessary to keep the telephone lines open for the call. If counsel is to be reached at a telephone number other than the published office telephone number, counsel must advise the Court at least 24 hours in advance of the hearing.

(D) Documents. If the use of written documents is anticipated at a telephone hearing, counsel must ensure that the Court and opposing counsel have copies of the documents in time for adequate review before the telephone hearing.
