

AGENDA

United States Bankruptcy Court/District of Wyoming ELECTRONIC EVIDENCE DEMONSTRATION

June 12, 2019 at 1:30 p.m.

Physical attendance: United States Bankruptcy Courtroom, 2120 Capitol Avenue, Room 8010, Cheyenne, Wyoming

Video conference attendance: Video conference attendance for this demonstration is available. Please contact the United States Bankruptcy Clerk's Office to coordinate 307-433-2200.

The Bankruptcy Court, District of Wyoming introduces electronic presentation of evidence. Electronic evidence is not mandatory in the court, but attorneys are encouraged to attend and participate.

Jeremy Gross, Assistant United States Attorney; Abby Logan, Courtroom Deputy for the Honorable Nancy J. Freudenthal; John Warburton and Christie Young, Bankruptcy Courtroom Deputies will demonstrate an examination of a witness using the electronic exhibit capabilities. The demonstration will include, but not limited to, annotating, identifying, admitting exhibits and other features used by counsel and courts.

Following the demonstration, attorneys will be offered the opportunity for hands-on use. Please bring a laptop or other device.

One hour of CLE has been submitted for approval.

Attorneys, paralegals and other staff members are invited to attend.